

INVITATION

Globalisation, Diversity and Economic Renewal

On behalf of Dublin City Council and GLEN, Declan Wallace, Executive Manager of Economic Development, Dublin City Council, invites you to a breakfast discussion on Globalisation, Diversity and Economic Renewal.

The Breakfast Discussion will be opened by Lord Mayor, Andrew Montague and features Professor Sean Kay, Author of Celtic Revival? The Rise, Fall and Renewal of Global Ireland, as key note speaker.

PANELLISTS ARE:

Professor Frances Ruane,
Director of the Economic and Social Research Institute.

Peter Finnegan,
Director of the Office of International Relations and Research in Dublin City Council.

Bernie Cullinan,
CEO of Clarigen and board member of Science Foundation of Ireland.

Kieran Rose,
Senior Planner,
Economic Development Unit,
Dublin City Council

Dr. Tom McCarthy
Chief Executive Officer of the Irish
Management Institute.

VENUE: Wood Quay Venue, Dublin City Council, Wood Quay

TIME 8.30am-10.30 am, on Monday the 12th of September, 2011

WEBCAST: The discussion will be webcast live at www.livestream.com/GLEN\_Live

RSVP: Robert.Hughes@dublincity.ie
For further information contact the Economic Development Unit
(01) 2222278 or GLEN (01) 6728650

Dublin City Council and GLEN are currently partners on a project to build a consensus on the economic case for diversity and equality. This project is funded by the European Union's PROGRESS Programme (2007–2013).

